First Post-Election Night Ballot Count and Unofficial Election Result Update for the November 8, 2022 General Election

Yolo County Assessor/Clerk-Recorder/Registrar of Voters Jesse Salinas announced the first post-Election Night ballot count and unofficial election result update for the November 8, 2022, General Election.

The most recent unofficial results for the November 8, 2022 General Election as of Tuesday, November 15, 2022 at 4:30 p.m. are available here: <https://www.yoloelections.org/election-returns>. The ballots in this update include many, but not all, of the Vote by Mail ballots received through Election Day by the US Postal Service or returned in person at a Ballot Drop Box or Vote Center. Please note, election results are not final until the election is certified. All results posted until certification are unofficial results.

“We prioritize the timely processing, verifying, and counting of outstanding ballots during the canvass,” said Salinas. “Great progress has been made and we expect to certify the election the week following Thanksgiving.”

Election Night results included 35,538 ballots. Today’s update includes 18,512 ballots processed since Election Night. The total number of ballots remaining to be processed during the canvass period is 15,729. A more detailed breakdown of the number of ballots remaining by ballot type is located here: <https://www.yoloelections.org/election-returns/estimated-unprocessed-ballots-2022-general-election>.

Please be advised, the number of ballots remaining to be processed are adjusted after each update. Estimates of unprocessed ballots are Countywide and are not currently available by jurisdiction as ballots are received and processed in batches from throughout the County.

The next unofficial election update will be Friday, November 18th by 5:00 p.m. and will provide more insight into election trends. It is possible that tight races may not be determined until certification of election.
